Confident

No one can call you shy! You're so outgoing, vibrant and open-minded; you may already have someone. If you don't, there's no need to fret. With your bubbly personality, it's just a matter of time until you match yourself up with the right person. Just be careful, don't overwhelm your crush. Sometimes you come on so strong, a person that is not sure of himself/ herself can get intimidated. Guys/ Girls can be delicate creatures – and not everyone is as bold as you are. Be gentle!

Balanced

When it comes to the other sex, you have the right idea. You're not afraid to make the first move – just to get her/ him to notice you – but after that, it's her/ his turn. You wait patiently for a boy/ girl to show you that he's/ she's interested. If you're already involved with someone, you know that this give and take works well. If you're not in a relationship, you will be soon! The other sex doesn't mind taking charge, but they like to know when they're on the right track. Keep up the positive attitude and fair approach, and

Shy

Alright, maybe you're not completely comfortable around the curious creatures of the other sex. That's okay! Not every guy/ girls wants a partner who is a big flirt. And it's important to be yourself. Still, if a cute guy or a sweet girl is totally checking you out, instead of looking away, you may want to try taking a deep breath – and smiling at him. The other sex appreciates a tiny bit of encouragement – they need to know if you're interested! When he/ she sees you smiling at him/ her, he'll/ she'll have the
